EXTRAordinary Women

Do you know a Boston woman who is doing amazing things for her community, neighborhood, or workplace?

The Mayor's Office of Women's Advancement wants to know about her! Help us recognize these EXTRAordinary women by giving them the spotlight they deserve in our newsletters and on social media.

Fill out the form to nominate. Deadline 12pm, February 1st

SPARK Boston Social

SPARK Boston Council's mission is to recruit civic leaders that fall within the age range of the council and live in the City of Boston, educate them on the work Boston's city departments are doing to support its residents, and provide space for these young civic leaders to advocate on issues most relevant to them.
