

SENATOR NICK COLLINS

Legislative Update

1st Suffolk District

Nick.Collins@masenate.gov

617-722-1150

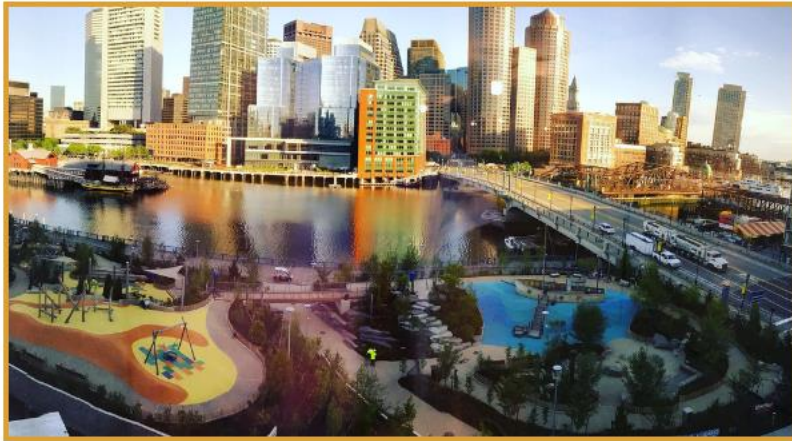

INVESTING IN BOSTON

Historic State Support

- $237.9 million in Unrestricted General Government Aid (UGGA) for the City of Boston – the largest local aid investment in Massachusetts history.
- $254.3 million in Chapter 70 funding for Boston Public Schools.
- More than $20 million for the Boston Public Library.
- Continued investments in transportation, public safety, and municipal services.

FORT POINT: BUILDING A MORE RESILIENT WATERFRONT

Expanding Parks & Public Spaces

Martin's Park

Fan Pier Park

Commonwealth Pier

Cypher Street Greenspace

Harborwalk Expansion

FORT POINT: BUILDING A MORE RESILIENT WATERFRONT

Climate Resilience

In July 2026, The Massachusetts Senate passed the Mass Ready Act, a $3.64 billion environmental bond bill to strengthen climate resilience, protect critical infrastructure, and prepare communities for severe weather.

LOCAL INVESTMENTS

Boston Harborwalk

Public Safety Improvements

Boston Water & Sewer Commission

Stormwater Discharge & Resiliency Projects

Reserve Channel Storm Surge Barrier

Boston's Children Museum

Climate resilience and waterfront infrastructure upgrades

Boston Waterfront

Continued investment in parks and coastal resilience

FORT POINT: WHAT'S NEXT

DISTRICT HOURS

with Senator Nick Collins

FORT POINT SERIES

SATURDAY JULY 4TH

9 AM - 11 AM

MARTIN'S PARK
64 SLEEPER ST
BOSTON, MA, 02210